Performer's Contract

Hi, my name is (child's signature-name)

I am excited to be invited to join The Children's Theatre Company.

I know that sometimes 'excitement' can whither away, so I look forward to my 'excitement' turning into 'dedication'.

I honor the principles of unity, courtesy, patience, cooperation, optimism and good will.

I understand that as an artist-member of The Children's Theatre Company, I will be expected to be of service to my fellow artist-peers who join me in the CTC, and I will be expected to be a role model in the extended community whom we serve.

I fully regard that such a commitment requires my focus, motivation and an open mind at ALL times.

I acknowledge that each of these values, along with my commitment to rehearsals, is vital, not only to my own enjoyment, but also to those around me.

Finally, my Mommy, Daddy, or a Grown-up took the time to read this agreement with me and explained the difficult parts that I may not have understood.

Parents: I agree to the calendar commitment of the CALENDAR - _____ and will be charged $25 for an unexcused absence of performance date. To avoid fees, performance absentees must be cleared by _____.
